Our Exodus in Detail – The Time Frame

The Second Exodus has begun! Discover the divine roadmap to the heavenly Canaan, so you won't be swept away by the deceptions of the second woe along the journey. In this first part, you'll see how the familiar timelines of Daniel and Revelation converge in perfect harmony with God's calendar and the signs in the heavens, exposing the enemy's plans with remarkable clarity. Fill your lamps with the oil of truth, and stand firm—whatever the cost—as the world's final great test over the mark of the beast rapidly approaches.

And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.
(Revelation 18:1-5)

And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. (Revelation 14:17)

Now will I sing to my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill. And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes. And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard. What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes? And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down: And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry. (Isaiah 5:1-7)

And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. (Revelation 14:19)

And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs. (Revelation 14:20)

Being the sign of the Son of man, the symbolism within this signature encompasses many aspects related to Jesus as the Son of man, His role in the divine plan of salvation as well as the announcement of His second coming in glory:

- The sign of Jonah depicting the great fish in whose belly Jonah (and by extension, the Lord) is represented.
- The new name and seal of Jesus and the Father.
- The seven churches of Revelation, which represent His body, with the urgent call of Jesus to repent and be gathered into the fold of truth.
- The ear that the members of the seven churches should have to hear the Spirit.
- The vision of Zechariah 4 that depicts two olive trees draining their oil into a bowl through two pipes, which is then distributed to seven other lamps (which are the seven churches as the light of the world).
- The harp that the end-time harpers play, as well as its ten strings, which are...
- The Ten Commandments in their fullness as Jesus expounded while on earth.
- The ark of the testament, with its contents of Aaron's rod, the bowl of manna, and the two tables of stone.
- The tree of life, whose leaves are for the healing of the nations, formed by the comet of Time.
- The final harvest at the end of the world^[4] with the wheat gathered into the barn and the grapes gathered and thrown into the winepress.
- The scene of the Lord's baptism and that of His people.
- The kingdom of God and the representation of His enemies becoming His footstool.
- The correlation of the end as in the days of Noah that Jesus prophesied.^[5]
- Lastly, the inheritance of the tribes of spiritual Israel are demarcated in the sign in an orderly sequence like the ancient tribes.

Actor: C/2024 E1

And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, King Of Kings, And Lord Of Lords. (Revelation 19:11-16)

The Mystery of the 1600 Furlongs

As Jesus' return draws near, humanity must make a final decision to either accept His grace as demonstrated on the cross, or reject it. In this video, you will witness the most powerful confirmation of the heavenly testimony of His return. As the midnight cry sounds and the harvest is gathered in, may Jesus and His heavenly wonders be lifted up! You will discover the mystery of the depth of the blood that reaches the horse bridle when the winepress is trodden outside the city of God. Those who embrace His cross will be amazed at the rich, spiritual treasure that the Lord packed into the last verse of the harvest in Revelation 14, which can only be unlocked by the heavens: it was revealed by the living Spirit of Prophecy directing us in the study of God's word.

G4712 στάδιον stadion (sta'-diy-on) n.

στάδιος stadios (sta'-diy-os) [masculine]

1. a stade or certain measure of distance (about 185m).

2. (by implication) a stadium or race-course.

from the base of [G2476 (as fixed)]

KJV: furlong, race

Root(s): G2476

Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain. And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. (1 Corinthians 9:24-25)

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. (Hebrews 12:1-2)

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. (2 Timothy 4:7-8)

Polis (μ Sagittarii)

- Location: μ Sgr, one of the bright stars above the "Teapot."
- Name: from the Arabic al-Bulūṣ (→ البُلص), in some sources, Albulaan.
- Originally means "the foals" or "the young horses."
- Later Latinized to "Polis."
- Reference: Fits the idea of the Archer/Centaur as a horse figure.
